#GoBlueAB Day

October 24th

October is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and the Central Alberta Child Advocacy Centre is inviting schools to participate in a special initiative on October 24th. We encourage our students and staff to wear blue in support of children in our communities who need us to stand up and be their voice. Together, we can help build safer and stronger communities through awareness and action.

This year, through #GoBlueAB, the CACAC hopes to spark important conversations within families and classrooms about what child abuse is, how it impacts our community, and what we can do to prevent it.
